

LONGSLICE BREWERY

The heat is on, so cool off with
'Beverly Hills Hop'.

NEW BEER: Beverly Hills Hop, summer release.

Longslice Brewery's new beer 'Beverly Hills Hop' is a super light American-style pale ale. Brewed with aromatic Salvo™ hop extracts, and juicy west coast hops, Beverly Hills Hop is the perfect summer beer, with only 3.5% alc/vol.

Inspired by our favourite buddy-cop movie, this Small APA takes us back to the hot Californian summer. Palm trees, neon colours, and a juicy light beer that delivers on flavour. The heat is on, so cool off with a Beverly Hills Hop!

Beverly Hills Hop is a seasonal release, a one-time brew only so make sure you try it ASAP. Available online at LONGSLICE.COM or at our retail shop inside The Aviary, Canary District, Toronto.

About Longslice Brewery:

Longslice Brewery is a Toronto-based Brewery located in the yet to discover Canary District. Jimmy & John, the Peat brothers and their longtime friend Sebastian Lesch created Longslice Brewery on March 20th, MMXIV (that's 2014, but it looks way cooler in Roman Numerals).

At Longslice Brewery we brew the kind of beers that we'd want to drink. You probably won't find any double-barrel-aged-imperial-quadruple-smoked-IPA's at Longslice, just great-tasting (not to mention award winning), quaffable lagers and ales. We don't take ourselves too seriously. We poke fun at the industry at large (ourselves included).

We want people to feel empowered to be themselves - no matter what colour, shape, or form that comes in.
